Resene kids art with Mark Rayner – 80

You will need:

- Paintbrushes (including artists' brush)
- Resene Terracotta Sealer
- Resene Testpots of Resene Alabaster, Resene Endeavour, Resene Nero, Resene Niagara, Resene Pirate and Resene Wellywood
- PVA glue
- Two small terracotta pots

Step one

Seal the inside and outside of the terracotta pots with one coat of Resene Terracotta Sealer and leave to dry for six hours.

Step two

Glue the bases of the two pots together, as shown, and leave for the glue to dry.

Step three

Paint the top pot with two coats of Resene Pirate and the bottom pot with two coats of Resene Niagara. Allow two hours for each coat to dry.

Step four

Paint a tie and teeth with Resene Wellywood and the eyes with Resene Alabaster.

Step five

Once dry, paint a collar, stripes and centre of the eye with Resene Endeavour. Paint dots on the ties with Resene Pirate. Allow to dry for two hours.

Step six

Paint face details and hair with Resene Nero and allow two hours to dry. How brilliant is that?

Create this kooky pencil holder using a couple of terracotta pots and a few Resene Testpots.

Top tip:

This can also be used outdoors as a plant pot, but make sure you use exterior PVA glue.

Here's another idea:

This crazy lady pen holder was painted with Resene Alabaster, Resene Bondi Blue, Resene Bright Red, Resene Nero and Resene Wax Flower.
