

making a hued difference

Mark Rayner uses bubble wrap to create a simple decorative effect on this purple trio.

To get the look

Mark planted the pot with purple-leaved Euphorbia dulcis 'Chameleon', painting the wall with Resene Lumbersider tinted to Resene Giggle.

You will need

- Terracotta pot
- 2 x terracotta garden spheres
- Paintbrush
- Resene Aquapel waterborne sealer
- Resene Quick Dry primer
- Testpots: Resene Voodoo, Resene Loulou, Resene Fandango, Resene Blackberry, Resene Black Rose, Resene Hot Wired.
- Resene Multishield+ Gloss
- Bubble wrap
- Small paint tray

1 Seal the inside and base of the terracotta pot with one coat of Resene Aquapel waterborne sealer and allow to dry.

2 Prime the terracotta spheres and the outside of the terracotta pot with one coat of Resene Quick Dry primer – allow to dry.

3 Paint the outside of the pot with two coats of Resene Voodoo, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

4 Paint the larger terracotta sphere with two coats of Resene Loulou, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

5 Paint the smaller terracotta sphere with two coats of Resene Fandango, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

6 With crumpled-up bubble wrap, dab Resene Blackberry on to pot to create a textured effect. Allow dry for two hours.

7 Repeat step six using Resene Black Rose on the larger sphere and Resene Hot Wired on the smaller sphere.

8 Apply one coat of Resene Multishield+ Gloss to the outside of the pot and spheres and allow to dry.
