

Potted Colour

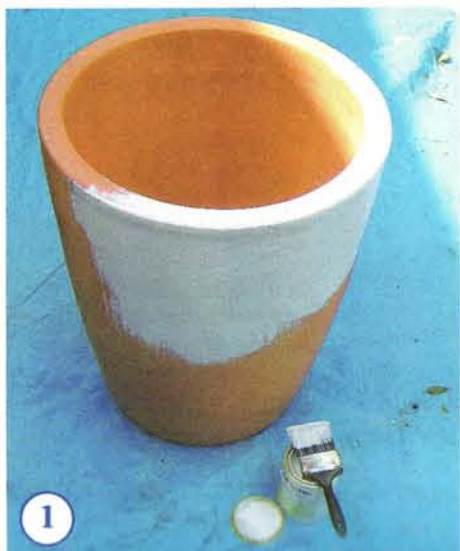

Inspired by the sweeping coastal view from Fort Takapuna Historic Reserve in Auckland, MARK RAYNER paints up a storm with this festive-looking pot.

You will need:

- A plain terracotta pot
- Terracotta sealer
- Resene Quickdry Acrylic Primer/Undercoat
- Resene Lumbersider Testpots
- Malibu (x2)
- Tory Blue
- Waikawa Grey
- Dingley
- Black Forest
- Rob Roy
- Nero
- Sambuca
- White
- Pohutukawa
- Resene Multishield Gloss
- Tape measure
- Masking tape
- Pencil
- Paintbrushes

Get the Look:

MARK used Cordyline 'Red Star' to complete the look (www.gardeningolutionz.com). All paint products available from Resene (0800 RESENE). Pot from www.willory.co.nz

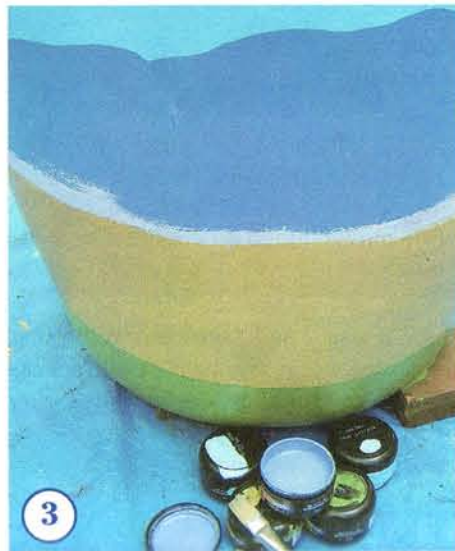

1

COAT the inside of the pot with the terracotta sealer. Paint the outside with one coat of Resene Quickdry Primer/Undercoat.

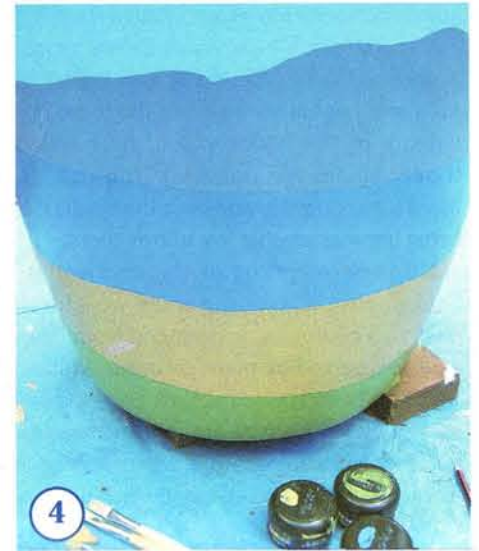

2

PAINT two coats each of 'Malibu' for the sky and 'Rob Roy' for the sand.

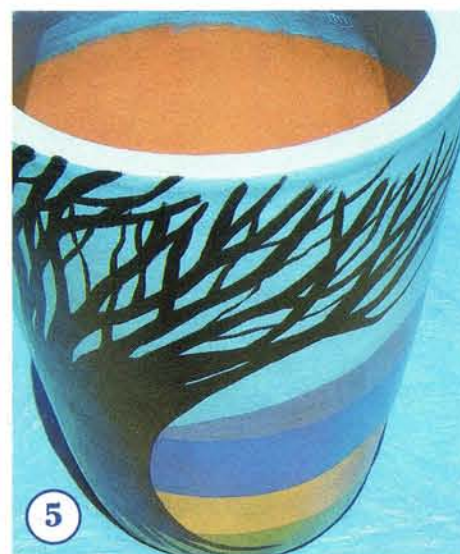

3

PAINT two coats each of 'Dingley' for the grass and 'Waikawa Grey' for Rangitoto Island. Use a soft pencil to mark the outline first.

4

PAINT two coats of 'Tory Blue' for the sea. Use a tape measure and masking tape to ensure a level horizon.

5

PAINT an outline of the trunk, roots and branches of the tree with 'Nero'.

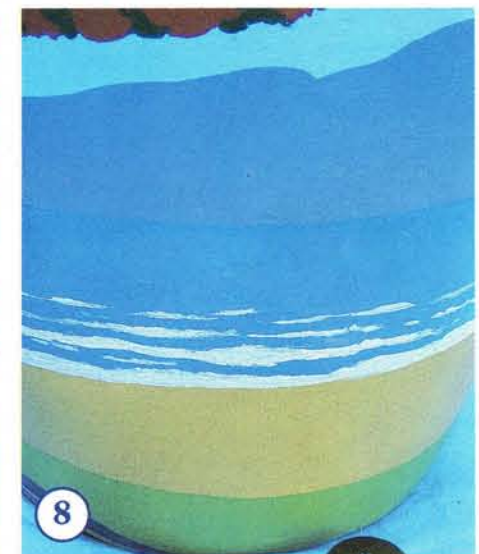

6

FILL in the detail on the trunk and branches with 'Sambuca'. Fill in the foliage with 'Black Forest'.

7

USING a large brush, dab on splashes of 'Pohutukawa' to create the flowers.

8

ADD a few waves with 'White'. Allow to dry overnight, then finish with two coats of Multishield Gloss, applying it out of direct sunlight and allowing at least two hours between coats.