Following a near collective pause during recent economic issues, life has slowed a little and with less money around we've Colour been reminded to appreciate the things we have and those around us. We've become more creative in taking what we have and the best of the past and using them to create modern memories and a fresh outlook on the future. No longer do we make decisions for today, now we factor into today and what we think might Colour has become an inseparable part of Avala our lives and the way we view the world. Awa Appliances once used to be purchased for their practical performance, yet now frequently it is the colour and design style alone that's the key deciding factor. We have come to expect a world where everything is touched by colour. Predictable and boring are bypassed. Accent colours were once usually featured on walls or in cushions, flowers and ornaments. Today it's just as likely that your feature might be a striking coloured fridge, kitchen accessory or the latest high fashion gadget.

home. It's all about comfort - deep Rowin luxurious baths you can sink into, furniture Break that envelopes you, beanbags for adults Brea for relaxing outside and wireless that lets you take technology into whichever room you like without a trail of cords. Nature has been a strong influence on the palette, particularly in recent years, and this continues to broaden into a wider colour range. Fresh colours, rustic textures and the beauty of handcrafted pieces, filled with personality in their imperfections. Colours from nature come blessed with a feeling of authenticity. Green shoots thrive as the recession becomes a fading memory. A sense of sincerity and purpose underlines the new seasons colours as they emerge cleaner and less complicated drawing inspiration from the heady fresh hues of flowers. Bright reds, retro pinks turning softer and creamier. Blues abound and are timeless and light on the senses. Decadence Darker blues are warmed. And just as a Deep South flower uses accents for attention, there Desire are touches of uber bright reds, oranges, Desperado co yellows and violets to draw in the eye. Devoted Colours to delight you, inspire you, motivate you and comfort you are all here in The Range 2011/12. Enjoy!
